FAIRBANKS IN OLD-TIME FORM

Ovation At Phoenix Hill Republican Meeting.

Former Vice President Predicts G. O. P. Success—Hear Morrow.

With his old-time erectness and distinction of bearing Charles W. Fairbanks, of Indiana, one-time Vice President of the United States, addressed a Republican gathering that filled the big hall at Phoenix Hill last night. As he entered the hall, shortly after 8 o'clock, he was given a rousing ovation, and this was repeated when he rose and began addressing the crowd.

The meeting was presided over by Clayton B. Blakey, City Attorney of Louisville during the Grinstead administration. Besides Mr. Fairbanks others who addressed the gathering were Edwin P. Morrow, Republican nominee for Governor, and Maj. W. C. Owens. Mr. Morrow, who entered the hall just before Mr. Fairbanks began to speak, was given a welcome equal to that received by the former Vice President.

Predicts Morrow Victory. In beginning his speech, Mr. Fairbanks said that on behalf of Hoosier Republicans he wished to extend congratulations to Kentucky Republicans on the sure election of Mr. Morrow, their nominee for Governor. He said it augured well for the success of the ticket when the biggest hall in Louisville would not hold the voters who left their homes to attend the rally.

"From all I have been told," he said, "had this been a Democratic rally there would have been room in the hall to spare."

Mr. Fairbanks' speech in part, follows:

"We are meeting in the most momentous times of world history. The European conflict should not be made a matter of partisan controversy. Still we must realize that the present prosperity of certain industries, based upon war orders, is inherently temporary. The Republican party stands for a prosperity which has a real substantial foundation. Within the period of the next Administration of this country our own national life and the markets of the world are going to be profoundly affected by the great conflict now raging abroad. We must meet that with a constructive pro-American programme. What does this consist of?"

"First—The restoration of the protective tariff.

"Second—Adequate preparedness for national defense.

"Third—Restoration of the American flag to the oceans.

"Fourth—Organization to market our wares in the world markets.

"We must not only have our own ships, we must establish ample banking facilities at strategic points in both hemispheres so as to effect exchanges more and more through our own agencies and to extend credits. We must send young men to different countries to learn the language of the people, to establish business relations with them, to learn their wants, whims and prejudices, and we must adopt a policy of more and more conforming to meet those conditions. If we are to win new trade we must do business as others desire it rather than undertake to force upon them our methods.

Industrial Coast Defenses Razed.

"We, as Republicans, believing in a permanent basis for prosperity, must all realize that with the end of this war will come great dangers as well as great opportunities. Industrial establishments, abandoned by millions who have rushed to arms and that are now filled with women and children and those physically unfit for military service, will be reopened. Only one rich neutral market in all the world presents itself, and that is ours. To our shores will fall a tide of commercial invasion which will be paralyzing under a Democratic free trade or a tariff-for-revenue-only policy.

"The Democrats have razed our industrial coast defenses. We are even more unprepared to resist commercial than military invasion. The weapon of cheapness, wielded by our impoverished commercial rivals, will be irresistible. Under a continuation of the Democratic tariffs there can be only one army mustered in this country, and that inevitably will be the great army of the unemployed.

"Military invasion is remotely possible; commercial invasion is deadly certain. We believe in adequate military preparedness, but to prepare for uncertainties and to prepare for certainties seems inconsistent. We are horrified by the distresses arising from war, but are they to be more dreaded by a nation than the despair and hunger that arise from industrial panic? We should know what will happen. We have had experience under two preceding Democratic tariff laws. There is one adequate national preparedness, and that is a restoration of the protective tariff.

New Lesson In Protection.

Mr. Fairbanks spoke at length on the protective tariff, from the angles presented by the new conditions. "If," he said, "further argument were needed forever to establish the American policy, as Henry Clay called it, the European war has furnished it. That war has served to call attention to our dependence upon Europe for certain elements of manufacture. But suppose the protective policy had not for a half century of Republican domination in national affairs been preparing this nation for the moment when it might have to stand alone industrially; suppose we had remained as the foes of protection would make us—a mere agricultural colony of Europe? What would have been our plight in the past eighteen months of European war? Instead of an individual blessing, mitigating the rigors of an experiment in partial free trade, it would have fallen upon our people like a blight, paralyzing whatever industry might feebly have arisen, and rendering us bankrupt.

"On the other hand, prepared as we have been, partially at least, for these emergencies, what opportunity this sudden change in the affairs of the world has opened to us, if we but heed the dictates of common sense and the admonitions of experience. We regret at this time only our failure in not more broadly applying the protective principle, so that today we might have a dye industry adequate chemical industry—above all a cross-ocean merchant marine operating under the American flag, which, if it existed today, would at once save us from every possibility of foreign complication, and open new pathways for American commerce to every neutral and nearly every belligerent port in the world.

"History has no parallel for the prosperity of the American people under the protective policy, measured either in the magnitude of that prosperity, or the degree of its diffusion. When, more than a half century ago, it was adopted as the policy of the nation, the business of the country was stagnated, its credit was at low ebb, its wealth and power insignificant compared with that of today. There have been three Democratic tariffs in the last sixty years, and the result of each of them has been debt, disaster and depression.

Mr. Fairbanks then went into statistical "proofs" of this assertion. He laid emphasis on the general distribution of prosperity under a properly administered protective tariff. The Republican party," he declared, "offers no apology for its friendship for legitimate business enterprises and labor!" * * * Frankly, and uncompromisingly the Republican party stands for the promotion of the material interests of the United States, knowing that no worthy civilization can be erected on the basis of a wage standard degraded to that prevalent in lands where labor is performed by classes called "peasant, peon, or coolie."

Lost Without Republican.

Dear Sir—I have failed to get the five last copies of your paper and feel like I am lost without same.

Will you change it from Ludlow to Valliant, Okla.

I truly hope the Republicans will win in Kentucky this time and wish I could be there to take part in the election but guess it will be impossible.

Very Resp't.
O. H. Park,

JUDGE BIRKHEAD AND THE TAX PAYER.

ON LAST FRIDAY JUDGE BIRKHEAD ADJOURNED THE OHIO CIRCUIT COURT, SO FAR AS HE WAS CONCERNED, AND UNHEARD OF THING, AND WENT OUT ON AN ELECTIONEERING EXPEDITION. JUDGE HENSON, OF HENDERSON WAS APPOINTED BY THE GOVERNOR TO FINISH OUT THE TERM. FOR THE WEEK JUDGE BIRKHEAD WILL DRAW FROM THE STATE TREASURY $87.50. JUDGE HENSON WILL ALSO DRAW $87.50 OF THE DEAR TAX PAYERS MONEY. THIS WOULD NOT BE SO NOTICEABLE IF IT WERE NOT FOR THE FACT THAT JUDGE BIRKHEAD HAS FOR YEARS POSED AS THE GREAT SAVER OF THE TAX PAYERS MONEY. FROM HIS CIRCULARS TO THE "DEAR PEOPLE" ON THAT SUBJECT ONE WOULD HAVE THOUGHT HE LAID AWAKE AT NIGHT TRYING TO DEVISE SOME SCHEME TO SAVE MONEY TO THE TAX PAYERS OF THE SIXTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT. HE DRAWS $350. PER MONTH. THE $87.50 WHICH THE JUDGE WILL DRAW FOR THIS WEEKS WORK, TRYING TO GET 18 YEARS SALARY AS JUDGE, AMOUNTING TO ABOUT $75,000. WILL EQUAL THE TAXES TO STATE AND COUNTY ON 9 OHIO CO. FARMS, VALUED AT $1,000 EACH. THIS $87.50, PAID BY REPUBLICANS AND DEMOCRATS ALIKE, TO THE "GOOD" JUDGE, FOR ELECTIONEERING, WOULD BUY SEVERAL LOADS OF STONE FOR ROADS. IT WOULD BUILD SEVERAL CULVERTS ON OUR BAD HIGHWAYS. EVERY TIME YOU MEET THE JUDGE OUT THIS WEEK, MR. VOTER, REMEMBER YOU ARE HELPING TO PAY HIM A LITTLE OVER $1.00 PER DAY TO PAT YOU ON THE BACK, AND BEG YOU FOR "CHAWIN TERBACKER."

INDEPENDENT PAPER OUT FOR MORROW

Paducah Sun Announces Its Support of the Prince of Kentucky Oratory.

The Sun knows that its morning contemporary is not so stupid as to believe that the "Independent" slogan of a newspaper guarantees or implies its non-participation in affairs of the city, state or nation. Therefore its attempted assumption that the Sun has deserted its independence in asking a hearing for Edwin P. Morrow must be the product of chagrin at finding its own efforts to discredit Mr. Morrow, checked.

Independence is a state of being which permits of no pre-conceived allegiance to any cause that demands support whether it be right or wrong. Independence is justification for working at all times for the best interests of the people, regardless of clan or party hopes. It is independence that has prompted the Sun to support movements for the public good, no matter the political complexion of the persons who are sponsor for them, just as it is the lack of this independence which causes the News-Democrat to avoid assisting any ambitious effort, in or out of the community, if the effort isn't rolled, stamped and labelled with the party brand and approved by the party's agents.

The Sun has spoken for Mr. Morrow because it is absolutely sure that the Republican candidate is presenting with absolute candor and magnificent courage facts of vital concern to the people of Kentucky—facts that discredit the present administration—facts that make the path of the present Democratic office seekers a thorny one to travel—but nevertheless facts. He accuses representatives of the people of wasting the public funds, and breaking promises to the men who put them in office. He offers convincing proof—proof that the persons he accuses have permitted to stand, and anyone who would deny him fully opportunity to bring his indictment and retort to abide by it, when he makes it in conviction, insults intelligence and deliberately prostitutes public welfare at a party's call.

Mr. Morrow has held up to the public gaze gross extravagance of Kentucky's administration officials. He has justly castigated a legislature which was acknowledged incompetent and faithless by its own kind though the same legislators have again been nominated for office. He has exhibited a list of broken pledges that is sickening, and he has planned upon one state official such convincing evidence of misconduct that his party associates acknowledge the handicap of his presence and the public wonders how he can pursue his ambition in the face of the arraignment.

If things, such as these, were brought forth by men of the same political faith as the men Mr. Morrow accuses, The Sun would be as quick to approve of the action. But it has not been done. Their incompetencies and misbehavior has been glossed over and they are being served to the voters of Kentucky as honest and capable, when the one is doubtful and the other positively false.

The State of Kentucky is in the rut—none will deny it. It has been there for some time, and it has gone proportionately deeper under the state administration of the past few years than it has ever gone before in the same length of time. Isn't there bound to be something wrong? And isn't the man who has the ability and the nerve to stand on his feet day after day, all over the Commonwealth of Kentucky, telling the truth entitled to the approbation of any man who is conscious of the heritage of "independence?" If we appreciate the significance of the name that is the American synonym for liberty, free speech, and the courage to be right, he is.

The News-Democrat or any other paper, championing the cause of those Mr. Morrow is attacking, truly possesses confidence in them, and believes them guiltless of the charges he has pressed to ably against them, why not take up the cudgels and go the route? Morrow talks in facts, and facts will answer back, if they exist. That would be a more profitable venture and a more honorable undertaking than making facts at someone whose opinions are displeasing.

At the very beginning of this campaign The Sun served notice upon Mr. Stanley and Mr. Morrow, in its limited field of influence, that the things the people of Kentucky wanted to know about were the things of Kentucky. Mr. Stanley has gotten just as far away from the subject as he can get and still stay in the state. Mr. Morrow has tackled it gloveless, and the simplest verdict in the lowest and highest courts of the world, alike render judgment for the prosecution, when a defense is lacking.

School Book Graft.

A Republican commission in 1910 made a contract for school books and the school children were furnished books at the following prices:

Republican Administration
Primer ..... 10 cents
First Reader ..... 12 cents
Second Reader ..... 20 cents
Third Reader ..... 27 cents
Speller ..... 12 cents

In 1914 a commission composed entirely of Democrats, made their present contract, whereby you are compelled to pay the following prices for books:

Democratic Administration.
Primer ..... 25 cents
First Reader ..... 25 cents
Second Reader ..... 30 cents
Third Reader ..... 38 cents
Speller ..... 18 cents

If you want to exchange an old book for a new one you now pay twice as much as you did under a Republican administration.

How much does this mean to you? Is it right to make you pay this additional sum for books?

If you want to get school books for the lowest price vote the Republican ticket November 2nd, and ask your neighbor to do the same.—Ky. Sun.

ED. MORROW FAVORS MINERS

Like His Uncle W. O. Bradley He Is For Laborers.

Has Been the Wage Earner's Friend Since He Was a Boy.

Edwin P. Morrow, the Republican candidate for Governor, was born and raised among the miners of Eastern Kentucky. His father, the Hon. Z. T. Morrow, was an eloquent speaker and was always a friend of the mining and laboring people of the community in which he lived; was always in sympathy with their cause and always defended their interest. He knew the mining and laboring people as only a man can know them who is one of them and lives among them. Mr. Morrow's uncle Hon. Wm. O. Bradley, was one of the strongest champions that the laborer of Kentucky ever had. He made the laborers cause his cause. From the time of his earliest manhood when he first became able to take part in public discussions until the date of his death, he championed the cause of the men who toil. He fought their fight. In the Kentucky Legislature; before various labor conventions; in the chair of Governor, and in the Senate of the United States, his voice was always eloquent in favor of the great laboring class of people who constitute the bulk of our population. The present candidate for Governor, Hon. Edwin P. Morrow, is the living embodiment of the strength and vigor and energy and integrity of his illustrious father and distinguished uncle. Like them he has always stood on the side of the laboring people. Wherever the interest of miners and other wage earners were at stake the voice of Edwin P. Morrow has always been raised in their behalf. He is a lawyer by profession and as such has been continuously retained as the attorney for the United Mine Workers of America in the community in which he lived. He has stood by the miners in their efforts to obtain a just and equitable compensation for the injuries they have received while at work in the mines, and has stood by the widows and orphans of the miners where the miners lost their lives while at work in the mines. He has defended them in many instances without pay whenever they have needed a champion and were unable to pay.

A few years ago there was a serious car shortage, it was Edwin P. Morrow in Eastern Kentucky who took up the question of getting the railroads to supply the cars needed in order that the mines might run and that the miners might have employment. Living as he does in a community so largely composed of miners and having been trained all his life by an illustrious father and a distinguished uncle, Edwin P. Morrow is perhaps the most thoroughly educated man in Kentucky in matters pertaining to the interest of labor and wage earners.

He is now candidate for Governor and he is making a manly fight, vigorous, aggressive fight for a fair system of taxation, for the enactment of laws favorable to the laboring people, for the repeal of such laws as are against the interest of the laborers and for a greater and better Kentucky. The laboring class of people are flocking to his support by the thousands. They know that he is an earnest, highly qualified, red-blooded champion of their cause, and that a man with his ability and his earnestness of purpose and his integrity of character, and his experience in the cause of labor can be of great benefit to the laboring people of Kentucky as their Governor.

He is the greatest orator of the South. He is a man of absolutely clean and upright character. He is for the laboring people and the laboring people are for him.

In all the eastern mining section and in all the great railroad centers of the State where large numbers of men are employed in the shops and on the railroads, the laborers have manifested almost unanimously their interest in Edwin P. Morrow, and their intention to support him for Governor.

The fact that the present election in Kentucky comes on the eve of the presidential election adds a good deal of strength to Mr. Morrow's campaign. The miners and laboring people have felt the pangs of poverty brought on by the present administration and they are lining themselves up for a tremendous victory in favor of a return of Republican prosperity, in 1916.

At a recent gathering at one of the local mines in Ohio County it was ascertained that the average monthly net earning of a loader under the present administration has been about $20.00 per month; out of which he had to pay his house rent, grocery bill, doctor bill, and all other living expenses. This condition should not be permitted to exist and this fact is one of the strong reasons why the laboring people all over the State of Kentucky are turning to Edwin P. Morrow in the present campaign.

Another One On Hamlett.

When the State W. O. W. encampment was held at Dawson Springs last March, Barksdale Hamlett attended as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Secretary of State. He put in three busy days, shaking hands with the boys from every part of the State and explaining to them the necessity of rotating himself from one office to another at Frankfort. When he went back to the capitol he promptly made out his expense account for his trip to Dawson and filed it with the Auditor. Now our own Gabe Likens was also a candidate for the nomination for Secretary of State. Likewise First Assistant Auditor. He had paid his own good, hard earned money for railroad fare, and hotel bill, while at Dawson, and he thought Hamlett should do the same. So he called his attention to the account, telling Mr. Hamlett that he surely did not mean to ask the State to pay this bill. The rotator was equal to the occasion and explained that he was down at Dawson to help the Graded School district about some school bonds which have already been voted and there was nothing Mr. Hamlett could do and he did nothing and said nothing to the school people while there in regard to the vote or the bonds. Will you vote for Hamlett?

Death of Mrs. Mariah A. Likens.

It is with a feeling of great sadness that we record the death of one of the county's most respected ladies.

Mrs. Mariah A. Likens was born May 26, 1840 and died of diseases incident to old age Oct. 26, 1915, therefore she had reached the age of 75. Funeral services were held at Bethel by Rev. Creel.

Mrs. Likens was a Miss York before her marriage to Mr. J. H. Likens in 1859. Her husband preceded her in death four years.

She was a member of the Baptist church for fifty years and at the time of her death her membership was with the Concord church.

Mrs. Likens lived with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Black since the death of her husband. She leaves surviving her four children, Mr. M. T. Likens, of Hartford, G. B. Likens, of Frankfort; Mrs. Frank Black, of Hartford and Mrs. Bernard Felix, of Rome, Ky., and also a grandson, Frank B. Likens who was very dear to her as his father, Mr. D. W. Likens, her son, and mother are dead.

James Burden Dead.

Mr. James Burden, Fordsville's town marshal, died very suddenly last Friday morning. He had gone to the Wilson Co's store to buy some groceries and while there he was attacked with heart failure and died in a few seconds. He had been in failing health for several months, suffering from dropsy and other complications.

After funeral services conducted by his pastor, Rev. Gabbert, at the Baptist church, his remains were interred in the Johnson burying grounds near Fordsville.

The deceased leaves a wife and three sons surviving.

GERMAN SOLDIER KILLS MANY MEN

Is awarded Iron Cross of the First Class For Great
Valor.

Plin, Oct. 19.—The German staff reports that Corp. George Frick, of Zell, Westphalia, has received the Iron Cross of the first class for exceptional bravery. The corporal belongs to a company which has been in a trench in the Argonne Forest many months. Almost every night the position of this company was attacked with hand grenades. These attacks were mysterious, as there was no trench of the enemy within a hundred yards.

Corp. Frick, without an order from his commander, finally decided to find out where these nightly bombardments came from. Creeping through several wire entanglements he approached then burst French trench. About a hundred feet from it, behind a group of trees he found a large hole in the ground and an investigation convinced him that this excavation was the entrance of a tunnel leading to the French position.

Hiding in a clump of bushes the corporal soon found his theory confirmed. Shortly before midnight about thirty French soldiers, armed with hand grenades, crept out of the hole. The Frenchmen hurried their advance against the German trench, and then disappeared as if the earth had swallowed them.

The corporal later reached his trench again but he did not tell any body of his discovery. On the following evening he made his way through the wire entanglements once more, but this time he carried several grenades, a mine and a small electric battery. He buried the mine near the hole behind the trees, attached wires to it and then crept to his hiding place with his battery and the hand grenades. When the Frenchmen appeared again toward midnight he quickly threw five grenades among them and at the same time he set off his mine.

The French detachment was literally blown into the air and not one man escaped alive. The tunnel was of course completely destroyed. The corporal returned to his company and reported the success of his exploit to his captain.

The Iron Cross of the second class the young soldier had won during the early stages of the war, when he stormed a farmhouse which was held by a strong French detachment with a patrol of nine men.

What About Stanley.

Mr. Stanley, candidate for nomination for governor of this State, is warming up the county unit law and so are the saloons, for they are lining up to elect him so we understand. Why, as reported, did Mr. Stanley some time ago when the county unit law was before the Democratic convention for consideration, make a speech against such a law and carried his county with him, so we are informed, to vote against it? When we were trying to vote whiskey out of several counties last year through the county unit law, did Mr. Stanley raise his voice to help us, or was his influence on the whiskey side?

"Listen to Mr. Stanley as he talks about Dr. N. A. Palmer and the people back of the Anti-Saloon League! They are working to rid the country of the worst evil known to the human race. Dr. Palmer was asked to come to Kentucky, by the best people of this State, to take charge of the Anti-Saloon League work. Stanley belittles this preacher, whose character is unquestionable. He is an invited citizen of this Commonwealth. Why should not Mr. Stanley lend a little of his time and influence to the temperance cause if he is such a great temperance man? When and where did he make a red hot temperance speech? Let him show his colors. Which side is he really on, anyway? Is a tree known by its fruit? Then what is the temperance of this candidate for Governor? Whose cause will be helped most by his election, the people who want a dry State or the people who want a wet State? What is the past record of Mr. Stanley on the temperance question? Should not a man's past record be an indication of the future? We are asking fairly that a man show his faith by his works. If Mr. Stanley is such a great temperance man why does he join on the greatest organization in the State which stands solidly for the eradication of the liquor evil in all its phases of unrighteousness and dissipation?"

Mr. Stanley in 1911.

Mr. A. O. Stanley continues to assert that he "stands upon the county unit bill," and that he only voted against putting a county unit plank in the Democratic platform of 1911 because he was instructed to vote Henderson county.

The part Mr. Stanley played in the 1911 convention is well known. Not only did he vote against the county unit bill, but he acted as one of the floor leaders for the liquor politicians fighting that measure.

This is only half the story. The night before the State convention he had been in the Democratic ticket at the Louisville hotel. Mr. Stanley, however, should not rely on ordinary appearances before those candidates and would have been a heated liquor speech, urging the candidates to use their influence to reject the county unit bill and to adopt a platform acceptable to his liquor allies.

Not content with one incendiary speech of that character, Mr. Stanley later in the same evening forced himself again before the candidates and repeated his arguments.

The truth of this incident can be ascertained from any candidate on the Democratic ticket of 1911, from Gov. McCreary down. Mr. Stanley was a leader of the liquor forces in 1911; he is their choice now, a distinction won by services at Washington and in Kentucky. If he is made the Democratic nominee for any office he will injure the Democratic ticket and strengthen the prohibition movement.

The first day of Democrats in Kentucky is to make impossible the nomination of Mr. Stanley.

Select Seed Beans.

Bean growers who would avoid a repetition next year of the heavy losses from disease suffered this season are advised by the department to give their personal attention to the immediate selection of a stock of seed beans free from disease infection. They should select the seed beans in the pod and not after thrashing.

They should simply pick the pods that are free from all spots, save, and thrash separately. The planting of infected seed is primarily responsible for the troubles experienced. Weather conditions greatly influence the subsequent development of disease, but clean seed on clean crop even in a season like the present, which has been exceptionally favorable to the development of disease and unfavorable to the growth of the bean crop.

Two beans diseases are commonly prevalent, anthracnose and bacterial blight. Both attack and spot the pods, penetrate them, and enter the beans, remaining dormant over winter under the seed coats, where they can not be reached by disinfectants.

When the beans are planted these diseases attack the young seedling causing a lot of rot and blighting of stem and leaves, and if the weather is cool and wet they spread again to the pods. Bacterial blight is conveyed by wind and other means to a greater extent than anthracnose and is less easily controlled, but clean seed and crop rotation will give best results. Old bean ground should not be replanted next year.

As far as possible each farmer should save his own seed from his best crops, selecting only those beans which have been selected from the cleanest pods. Examine all thrashed seed carefully, and if it shows suspicious spots or other evidence of disease it should not be used. Further selection, also, will tend to build up a strain adapted to the locality and better than seed brought from a distance.

A survey just completed shows that there are fields in all parts of the bean States where clean pods, or even plants with all the pods clean, may be found, though some fields are hopelessly affected. The farmer who expects to continue bean growing—and this valuable crop should not be abandoned because of this year's discouraging experience—should pick enough clean pods to plant his next crop, or at least a large seed plot. These should be shelled by hand and carefully stored. If the quantity is small, it would be well to plant by hand two beans every 12 or 15 inches in ordinary rows in a separate plot.

"Dope" on shooting is plentiful. And shooters know where the right dope comes from—and that it leads straight to Remington-UMC.

THE Remington-UMC Pump Gun and Autoloading Gun—these are the shotguns of today. Adopted everywhere, for use in the field and over the traps—shot by more of the men who are setting the pace in the sport than any other make of guns in the world.

In the matter of Shells—where is the sportsman who does not know the Remington-UMC "Speed Shells," Steel Lined—all the drive of the powder kept back of the shot, and showing results that flatter any make of gun?

For the right dope—see the Remington-UMC Dealer. He displays the Red Ball Mark of Remington-UMC—the sign that his store is Sportsmen's Headquarters of the town.

ty is small, it would be well to plant by hand two beans every 12 or 15 inches in ordinary rows in a separate plot.

There should be organized effort on the part of county agents, bean dealers, and community leaders to have all available clean seed saved for local use and not sold with the general crop. This must be done before the beans are thrashed.

McCreary Attempts to Show His Administration Not So Bad.

Governor McCreary in his printed speech uses the figures in the Republican hand-book as to the receipts and balances under his administration and that of Governor Wilson.

He promptly took credit for the $560,000 of indebtedness left by Governor Willson, but forgot to give Willson credit for $1,329,000 owing when Governor Willson's fiscal officers took charge. This item was made up from the vouchers during the campaign of 1911 and was in our campaign hand-book that year and its correctness has never been disputed.

He charged Republicans with four salaries six months of which was under Governor Beckham and then charged himself with only three years, in an evident effort to mislead the public.

He takes credit for $90,000 appropriated for four State primaries when there was never any such appropriation made. Under sections 29 and 30 of the Primary Act the expenses are to be paid in the same manner as the expenses and supplies for general election which are payable by the counties.

He prints a long list of payments made under sundry appropriations to show that they spent the money. This was useless because we admit without argument that they spent it.

He tells us that the money was paid under appropriations made by the Legislature. The Legislature was Democratic and his excuse is that a Democratic administration spent nearly five million dollars more than a Republican administration spent for a like period because a Democratic Legislature made the appropriations.

There were Democratic Legislatures during Governor Willson's administration and before, and they forced him to pay out more than $2,500,000 in special and increased appropriations.

His list is important because of the things he left out.

Why didn't he tell you that part of the increase was made up of the following:

Increased salaries, $177,254.67.
Salaries paid under other heads, $114,719.06.
Fire Marshal's office increase, $24,335.35.
Public offices increase, $31,281.61.
Paper for public printing increase, $27,793.25.
Public printing and binding paper, $122,350.32.
Record books to counties increase, $19,121.88.
Printing—school department increase, $34,533.85.
Hamlett's expenses, $9,382.54.
And a hundred other useless expenditures.

He actually cites $317,860.80 which he paid in increased interest on the debt he has piled up as an item to his credit.

He includes $75,276.90 which he paid out under a law which he admits was unconstitutional and claims as a virtue this illegal expenditure of your money. He points with pride to the expenditure of $1,062.23 for the Panama Exposition Commission when Kentucky was not represented there at all. He claims credit for the expenditure of $7,703.01 for a tax commission whose report was rejected by his legislature. He claims credit for $90,300 spent in primary elections when everybody knows the expenses of these elections are paid by the counties. He claims credit for $48,990 for increased salaries to members of the legislature when increase in salaries is what the people complain of. But why consume time in exposing the false pretense by which he and his associates try to conceal from the taxpayers the graft and gross extravagance of his team of wild horses.

When mother is awakened from sound sleep to find her child who has gone to bed apparently in the best of health struggling for breath, she is naturally alarmed. Yet if she can keep her presence of mind and give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy every ten minutes until vomiting is produced, quick relief will follow and the child will drop to sleep to awaken in the morning as well as ever. This remedy has been in use for many years with uniform success. Obtainable everywhere.

If Adequate Protection Is Restored.

When the world is again doing business on a peace basis quite possibly we shall not be able to hold leadership in the export trade. It is certain that we cannot if this country's industries remain exposed to the unfair competition of foreign manufacturers who have the advantage of cheap labor, which competition has been made possible by the low Tariff law enacted by the Democratic Congress and signed by President Wilson.

If adequate protection is restored then the present impetus that has been given to our foreign trade may enable us to hold the advantage which we have gained, or at least so much of it as will leave us a close second in respect to exports.—Albany Journal.

Sick Women Attention

Is it possible there is a woman in this country who continues to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, which proves beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other one medicine in the world?

We have published in the newspapers of the United States more genuine testimonial letters than have ever been published in the interest of any other medicine for women—and every year we publish many new testimonials, all genuine and true. Here are three never before published:

From Mrs. S. T. Richmond, Providence, R. I.

PROVIDENCE, R. I.—"For the benefit of women who suffer as I have done I wish to state that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I did some heavy lifting and the doctor said it caused a displacement. I have always been weak and I overworked after my baby was born and inflammation set in, then nervous prostration, from which I did not recover until I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The Compound is my best friend and when I hear of a woman with troubles like mine I try to induce her to take your medicine."—Mrs. S. T. Richmond, 84 Progress Avenue, Providence, R. I.

From Mrs. Maria Irwin, Peru, N.Y.

PERU, N.Y.—"Before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was very irregular and had much pain. I had lost three children, and felt worn out all the time. This splendid medicine helped me as nothing else had done, and I am thankful every day that I took it."—Mrs. MARIA IRWIN, R.F.D. 1, Peru, N.Y.

From Mrs. Jane D. Duncan, W. Quincy, Mass.

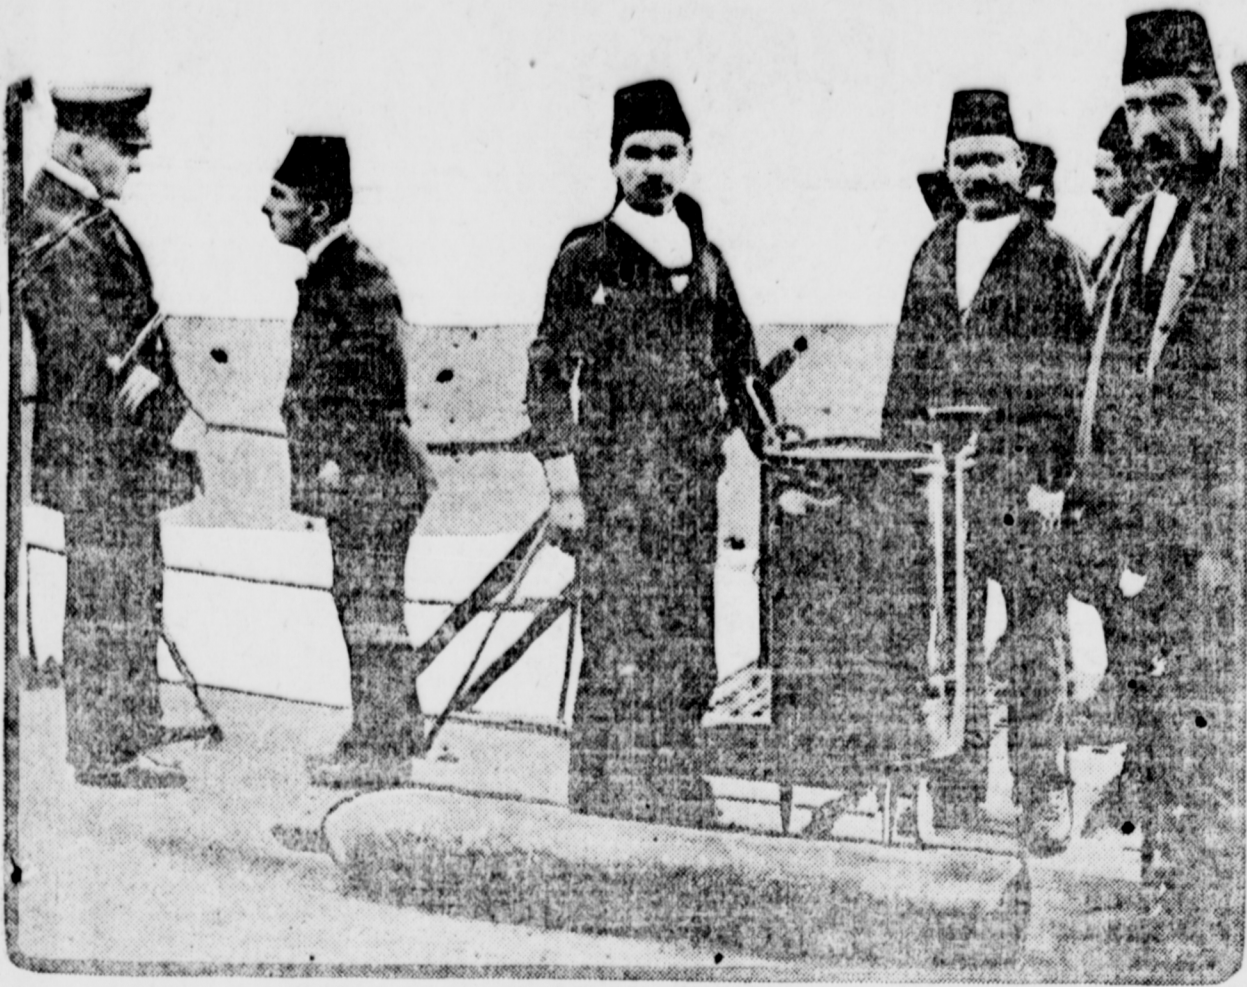

SOUTH QUINCY, MASS.—"The doctor said that I had organic trouble and he doctored me for a long time and I did not get any relief. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and I tried it and found relief before I had finished the first bottle. I continued taking it all through middle life and am now a strong, healthy woman and earn my own living."—Mrs. JANE D. DUNCAN, Forest Avenue, West Quincy, Mass.

Weevil Moves Rapidly.

Under normal conditions the boll weevil advances into new territory at the rate of about 50 miles each year, but during a period of only two weeks during the present season there was an advance of about 100 miles. This movement carried the insect into Georgia for the first time, and 25 counties in that state became infested. Several counties in Florida have been infested for several years, but eight additional ones became infested by the same movement. Twenty additional counties in Alabama were invaded. All of this spread took place between the 15th and 31st of August.

There were several conditions, according to the entomologists of the department, which contributed to this unusual dispersion. One of them was the drought in Alabama and Mississippi, which caused the plants to cease fruiting and deprived the weevils of the squares upon which they prefer to feed. The more important condition, however, was a series of very high winds which began on August 15 and blew continuously for several days toward the northeast. The weevils were thus carried much farther than they would have gone by natural flight or even by the aid of ordinary winds.

The department has placed all available forces at work to assist the farmers in the territory that has just become infested. Most of the cotton is now open and this will allow an unusually early picking so that the fall broods of the weevil can be destroyed by uprooting and burying the plants or burning them where necessary. The department strongly urges the burying of the plants wherever this can be promptly done, the humus thereby placed in the soil is of very great importance. The state agencies are cooperating with the agents of the department, and a very active effort will be made to reduce the number of weevils to the extent that will allow an approximately normal crop to be produced next season.

Another feature of the boll-weevil problem which is attracting considerable attention is the damage that is being done in Texas this season. There is a more or less general impression in the Eastern part of the cotton belt that the boll weevil has died out in the State of Texas, but the investigations of the department show that the abundance of the insect in that section depends on climatic condition. During the present season these conditions have been extremely favorable, with the result that the insect has been as abundant as at any time since it invaded the State. The lesson to be drawn from this fact is that the planters in the eastern part of the cotton belt must make a strenuous fight and should realize that since the boll weevil has not died out either in Texas or Mexico, it is not likely to do so in any other region that may become invaded. They should adjust their systems of farming to boll-weevil conditions without delay.

It looks like the Courier-Journal and Times' prosperity wave will not last until after the election.

When a set of politicians raise the cry that the other fellows are fixing to buy the election, it is best to watch them.

The Courier-Journal is now able to feature one of the "Heavenly twins" on first page, and the editorial castigation has been temporarily suspended.

There is strange inconsistency among our Democratic friends. Some are claiming Stanley's election from 30,000 to 50,000, while others are warning their voters against overconfidence.

If Judge Birkhead is allowed 12 years in his present office, he will draw more salary than the entire taxes paid, for County purposes, by the tax payers of Ohio County for two years.

Mr. Bryan is touring the State of Ohio this week, on a special train, speaking for State-Wide-Prohibition and hence could not accept an invitation to be one of the speakers on the Stanley special.

Candidates who attempt to "play both ends against the middle" in possum hunting prosecutions, or any other kind of prosecutions, deserve to be voted against by every honest right minded citizen.

Mr. L. L. Embury, the Republican nominee for Representative, will have no Democratic opponent. Mr. Phillips having failed to file his certificate with the County Clerk to get his name on the ballot.

Carranza, whom President Wilson has recognized as President of Mexico, is no better than Huerta, whom he refused to recognize, and no better than Villa, who is the best friend to this country of the whole layout.

If Judge Glenn told the truth when he showed, by actual figures, that sixty five per cent of appeals from Judge Birkhead's Court were reversed by the Court of Appeals, he has been the most costly Judge, for both taxpayers and litigants, the district has ever had.

Judge Glenn must have known what he was talking about, during primary campaign, when he derided Judge Birkhead's tax saving propensities. Watch the Judge pull down $87.50 for six days work holding Court in Ohio County while the State pays another Judge for the work, including traveling expenses from Henderson and return.

Wallace Riley, the Republican nominee for Circuit Court Clerk, has made a splendid fight for success in Ohio county next Tuesday. He is thoroughly competent and deserving. He should receive the vote of every Republican. Not only that, but a united Republican party owes it to him to see that he is upheld in his manly fight for Republican principles. Vote for Wallace Riley for Circuit Court Clerk.

VERY COMFORTING.

Because this paper stated last week that President Wilson had written no letter, at that time, for Stanley, when in fact such a letter was printed in the daily papers which reached Hartford in the afternoon, and about the time when we have to go to press, The Hartford Herald takes great comfort. It uses considerable space under the head of "NAILED" to show that on that account nothing we publish is reliable. The Herald is welcome to all the comfort it may get out of the error, which was not an error when the article was written, and it is also welcome to all the comfort it can get from the much heralded letter which asks no one to vote for Mr. Stanley, and which seems very careful of the phrases used in endorsing him.

The Herald was so elated over something it had "NAILED" that it forgot to even mention its vindication(?) of Hamlett, by publishing a certain statute relating to teachers' diplomas.

SPEAKING OF ABUSE, ETC.

A prominent Republican of Ohio county, while in Hartford last Saturday was asked if he was going to support one of the leading candidates on the Republican ticket. He replied no—that he "would vote for no man who would stand up on the sunny side of a building and listen to bootleggers until he got warped crooked." Name of either or both these men will be furnished privately by application at the Herald office.—Hartford Herald.

The above is a fair sample of the Herald's mode of attack—in the dark. It asks all its readers to assemble at its office to get information "privately." Nothing said about necessary expenses of travel for those living at a distance, but we presume The Herald will pay it. We doubt if any such conversation ever occurred, except in the weird mind of the Herald editor. It is in keeping with the cowardly insinuations about "whiskey in a railroad cut" and whiskey and "fights" at Rosine and Shreve, before the primary. However, if the editor of the Herald has any information which he is willing to part with, "privately," at his office, his readers should make a grand rush. They haven't been getting much through the columns of his paper and they ought to have the benefit of their dollar some way.

Every vote cast for Stanley means one more mile of good roads.—Hartford Herald.

This is important, if true. Fifteen hundred votes for Stanley in Ohio County, would make good every mile of road. Think of it. Here we have been organizing Good Roads Associations, having work days for the people and the very best men in the county have been trying to devise means and ways for good roads. It remained for the editor of the Hartford Herald to solve the problem. If more good roads are built in Kentucky, the taxpayers will build them, not Mr. Stanley, and the state must first be gotten out of debt. This can only be done by destroying "the shack that graft built." This can only be done by destroying "invisible government" at Frankfort. This will not be done thru Mr. Stanley, with grafters and rotators making up his ticket, his party platform endorsing the present State administration and part of the lobby at work at his headquarters, in Louisville. Mr. Morrow has promised in every speech he has made, if elected, to use every means at his command to abolish the needless offices and curtail extravagant salaries fastened upon the taxpayers by Democratic Legislatures. We might with much better grace say that every vote for Morrow means two more miles of good roads.

VOTE FOR WHOM?

The following from the Owensboro Messenger shows how ignorant people only a short distance from home are concerning real conditions and

Just what has happened in Ohio County:

"It is generally agreed that over in Ohio county, the only place in this judicial district in which 'possum hunting' has been prevalent, that it has been thoroughly routed out, and there is a reason, and that reason should cause many independent and even fair minded Republicans to vote for the men who brought about this great reform, the most effective blow ever directed against anarchy and rowdiness in the state.—Owensboro Messenger.

There have been in all about 140 men indicted in Ohio county for possum hunting. Four weeks of court has been held to try them. Three men have been tried in the four weeks. Two have been acquitted and one convicted. Seven men have entered pleas of guilty. They walked up to the court and said "here am I, send me." No leader or any man who ever presided over one of the meetings has ever been tried or sent to prison. The men who have been sent up are poor ignorant men without influence, and one at least could neither read nor write. It looks like there has been a greater effort to put off trials of these men than there has to bring them about. At the rate they are being tried it would take ten years, with the present court sessions set apart to Ohio county. It is charged that an effort has been made to influence the men indicted and their friends for certain candidates, because they have not been tried, or may never be tried. On the other hand it is attempted to influence the votes of other people in some sections, who may be prejudiced against them, in favor of certain candidates, because a large number have been indicted and eight sent to the penitentiary.

Here efforts to drag these cases into politics have been rightly frowned upon by all good citizens. Yet the news sent away from here to certain daily papers has been highly colored and the work of two candidates in this judicial district in this connection magnified to a ridiculous extent. Now the Owensboro Messenger, editorially, attempts to make political capital for some one who has, it says, "thoroughly routed out" possum hunting in Ohio county and asks for votes for certain men on this account. Any newspaper, or individual, who would try to make political capital out of the suffering of these poor men, who have been punished and who are doubtless not as guilty as many who have escaped, is to be contemptible for expression. The candidate or candidates in whose interest this dirty work is attempted should be snowed under next Tuesday by an avalanche of votes.

MOST COMPLETE ANSWERS.

Our readers will remember how The Hartford Herald thrust itself into the breach, when this paper republished certain charges against Judge Birkhead and asked him to answer them, not thru the Herald, but in this paper. These charges were not made by us. They were serious and demanded an answer. We have offered no abuse concerning either Judge Birkhead or Mr. Ringo, and no falsehood published by the Herald, on this subject can alter that fact. In the absence of any answer, because there was no answer, The Herald has trothed at the mouth and abused the originator of the charges, and the editor of this paper for repeating them, arguing that such charges should not be made against such "honorable gentlemen." It has made vague insinuations against certain Republican candidates, without having the manhood to give the names. It undertook to show up Mr. Morrow, as an "ignoramus," for charging Barksdale Hamlett with collecting fees, under false pretenses from school teachers. To do so it published the wrong statute. It was promptly called down last week by this paper and requested to publish the truth. To all this it responds, this week, "ass," "ass," "ass." Listen, dear reader to its last expiring wail: "The ass, editor of the Hartford Republican, recently added to its staff, takes up large space in that sheet in its last issue and proceeds to squash the very life out of the Hartford Herald at one fell and fearsome stroke—to his own satisfaction, anyhow. You can always recognize the ass, editor's stuff by its EAR marks and the loud noise it is intended to make. This is characteristic of associate (ass, for short) editors and the public should bear with him patiently."

"The Republican campaign in this county, as voiced by its party newspaper organ here, has degenerated into a tirade of abuses and incrimination of Democratic candidates, as slanderous as it is uncalled for. The Republican leaders care nothing for the high personal character of the men they attack. It matters little to them whether their shares are true or not. Let the loyal Democrats of Ohio county rebuke these unworthy tactics by voting their party ticket straight."

If the local Republican politicians (including the new ass, editor of the Hartford Republican, who dilates on "the poor, ignorant Hartford Herald," which he says has "made an ass of itself" and calls it a "fool" for so doing) were so cock-sure that Barksdale Hamlett ought to be indicted for obtaining money under false pretenses, why didn't some of them go before the recent grand jury, just adjourned, and indict Hamlett for so doing? Why didn't they back up their argument with prompt action? What were they afraid of? A majority of the grand jurors were Republicans."

Darkey "Shipped a Cog in His Cor-respondence."

Sheridan Johnson, the darkey who recently broke into Tappan's Jewelry store and the Hub Clothing Co. store, was arrested and lodged in jail and later escaped from the county bastille, was arrested at Frankfort and brought back to Hartford by Sheriff Keown Monday.

There is a curious little story about his capture. Johnson left a sweetheart here and concluded to write to her. He thought he would practice a shrewd trick, so he addressed the letter to a friend of his sweetheart. Now there is a young white girl going to school here of the same name and she got the letter in her mail. She did not understand it and showed it to a young man friend. He quickly took it to the county authorities.

Johnson had changed his name to "Sylvester Manners," but the wording of his letter showed he was the man wanted, and it also contained his street and house address. The Sheriff immediately telephoned to the Frankfort authorities and Johnson was nabbed.

Judge James P. Lewis.

The Western Recorder, one of the best known church periodicals, of the State, contains editorial recognition of the candidacy of Judge James P. Lewis, of Whitesburg, Republican candidate for Secretary of State. The Recorder says, "There is no truer, nobler, or consecrated layman in our Commonwealth. He is a Christian and a Baptist of the New Testament order. He is a candidate for Secretary of state and would grace any office to which he may be called. In this connection it may not be amiss to observe that Judge Lewis is being opposed for the office of Secretary of State by Barksdale Hamlett who is seeking to be elected Secretary of State, in order that he may prepare himself "to beat hell out of Ed. Morrow four years hence." Every good citizen of Kentucky should vote for James P. Lewis, and rebuke grafting upon the school fund.

There was a big demonstration when the verdict of "Not guilty" was read out, by friends of the defendant.

THE NATIONAL RIFLE COMPETITION

By Lieut. C. B. Shown Who Went With the Kentucky Team As Coach.

The great national shooting tournament being held at Jacksonville, Fla., was brought to a successful close on last Friday. The shoot was said by many to have been the greatest ever held in this country. There were 44 rifle teams entered, representing the States of the Union, the army service teams and Hawaii.

In the national team match, which is the premier event of the shoot, the U. S. Inf. team led with a lead of 3 points over the marine corps team. The teams in this match consisted of 12 shooting members and they are divided into three classes of 15 teams each according to their standing at the finish of the last previous shoot. These classes are lettered A, B and C, and a trophy and prize money is given to the teams leading in each class.

Kentucky had the most successful team this year that the state has ever sent out and its members by their splendid shooting moved the State from 42nd up to a tie for 17th place and won class "C" trophy and $200 in prize money.

The Kentucky team was especially strong on the 600 yard range at which point it defeated every team in the match except the U. S. Inf. and tied the score with that team.

In the final matches in which the Ky. team was entered the boys from the 2nd. Ky. Reg. seemed to out shoot their comrades from the mountains and this caused them to be rather jubilant as the boys from the 2nd. Reg. heretofore have generally had the best of the argument.

Sergeant Marvin Hoover of C. H. 3rd. Inf., a local boy, finished high man on the Ky. team and for his splendid marksmanship will be awarded the Gen. Williams medal. This medal is said to be the most beautiful that is issued by the state for excellence in rifle shooting.

Wallace H. Riley.

Mr. Wallace H. Riley, the Republican candidate for Circuit Court Clerk is a young man of fine character and the very truest Republican principles. He has been a consistent Republican all his life, and during the last few years when the Republican party has been the most severely attacked within its own ranks, Wallace Riley has stood consistently with the old party, never wavering, never faltering. While Mr. Otto C. Martin was Chairman of the Republican Ohio County Executive Committee, Mr. Wallace H. Riley was recommended and appointed Republican Election Commissioner for Ohio County and filled that position with fairness and consistency.

He is ably fitted and qualified for the position of Circuit Court Clerk, which he seeks.

During the first few weeks after the primary he was confined to his room by a serious attack of appendicitis and for several days it was impossible for him to get out and mix and mingle with the voters, but since the date of his recovery he has taken chances with his health and has been continuously out in the field actively at work in behalf of not only his own campaign, but for the success of the whole Republican ticket. He has stood true and faithful and square in every respect, and he is entitled to the hearty support of the Republican party.

Farmers Take Notice

There will be held here at the court house on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 5th, and 6th, a Farmers' Institute conducted by some splendid agricultural men from out of the State and a lady specialist on the "Domestic sciences" and our county agent, W. Browder is requesting all of our good farmers to come and bring their wives and he would also like for the farmers to bring in for exhibition at this time and good fruit wheat, corn, cotton, vegetables, canned or otherwise of any kind. Live stock or anything they may have that will show some of the resources of Ohio county and what its farmers are doing at the same time will advertise their own industry. We understand that one of our farmers by this method sold quite a lot of Prediction of Victory From Mr. Thomas.

To the Republicans of Ohio County: The most remarkable campaign ever witnessed in Kentucky is nearing its close, and the greatest Republican victory in the whole history of the state will mark the closing.

I have been for two months at Republican headquarters, and I have met men from every part of the State and the uniform story is that great numbers of Democrats in their communities, will either vote the Republican ticket or remain away from the polls. The Louisville Post, which is supporting Mr. Stanley says apathy in the Democratic ranks is apparent in every part of the state.

The enormous state debt, Bennett's shameful record, the Bosworth check, Stanley's reputation as an advocate of the liquor interests, the rape of the Democratic Party by the late State Convention and scores of other like incidents insult the sense of decency of many thousand of Kentucky Democrats, who openly declare their purpose to assist in a general house cleaning.

The Republican party was never before so perfectly united in Kentucky. Its ticket is clean and capable, and commands the respect of the best people in all parties. Ed Morrow's personality is a tremendous asset. His like has never before appeared in Kentucky politics. He has the firmness without the fierceness, of a warrior; the courage without the gusto of a hero, and the zeal without the rashness of an apostle.

Not with lust for power, but with love for man he stands before the people of Kentucky, an advocate who commands not only the respect and confidence, but the filial love of a grateful people.

A Greek philosopher, answering the inquiry of the Athenian youth for the key to success simply said, "Be in earnest," and earnestness is the secret of Ed Morrow's power.

As Governor of the Commonwealth he will whip the money changers from the temple of the state and make Kentucky's name most honored in all the galaxy of states.

Victory is now certainly assured, and I want to see my own county share in the laurels of victory. I want to appeal to the Republicans of Ohio county to bury every personal petty difference, and lend a helping shoulder to the push for the grandest victory ever achieved by our party in the state.

As one of the defeated candidates at the late primary, I want to beg my 'Fellow fallen heroes' to be men, worthy and faithful leaders of the voters who so loyally supported them, and who are now faithfully supporting our ticket, state and local.

All the world loves a game fighter it is no less honors ahrdumfwyp it no less honors a game loser, and let us form the van guard of the victorious army.

If any any Republican who supported me at the late primary will not support my successful opponent he is neither a friend to me nor a loyal Republican, and I urge the other defeated candidates, to declare in like manner their loyalty to the Republican ticket, both state and local.

J. H. THOMAS.

Complimenting Judge Henson.

At a meeting of the Hartford Bar with H. P. Taylor, Chmn. and W. H. Barnes, Sec. The following resolutions were adopted and approved by the body.

Be it resolved by the members of the Hartford Bar,

First, That we tender to the Honorable J. W. Henson our sincere thanks for the able, courteous and conscientious manner in which he has conducted the business of the last week of the October term of the Ohio Circuit Court at Hartford, Kentucky.

Judge Henson has impressed us with his learning and fairness as a jurist; the dignity of his conduct and demeanor while on the bench and quiet ease with which he has conducted the trials of cases in court; the excellent order which he maintains in the court room and kindly and firm manner of his dealing with all the officers of the court and members of the bar.

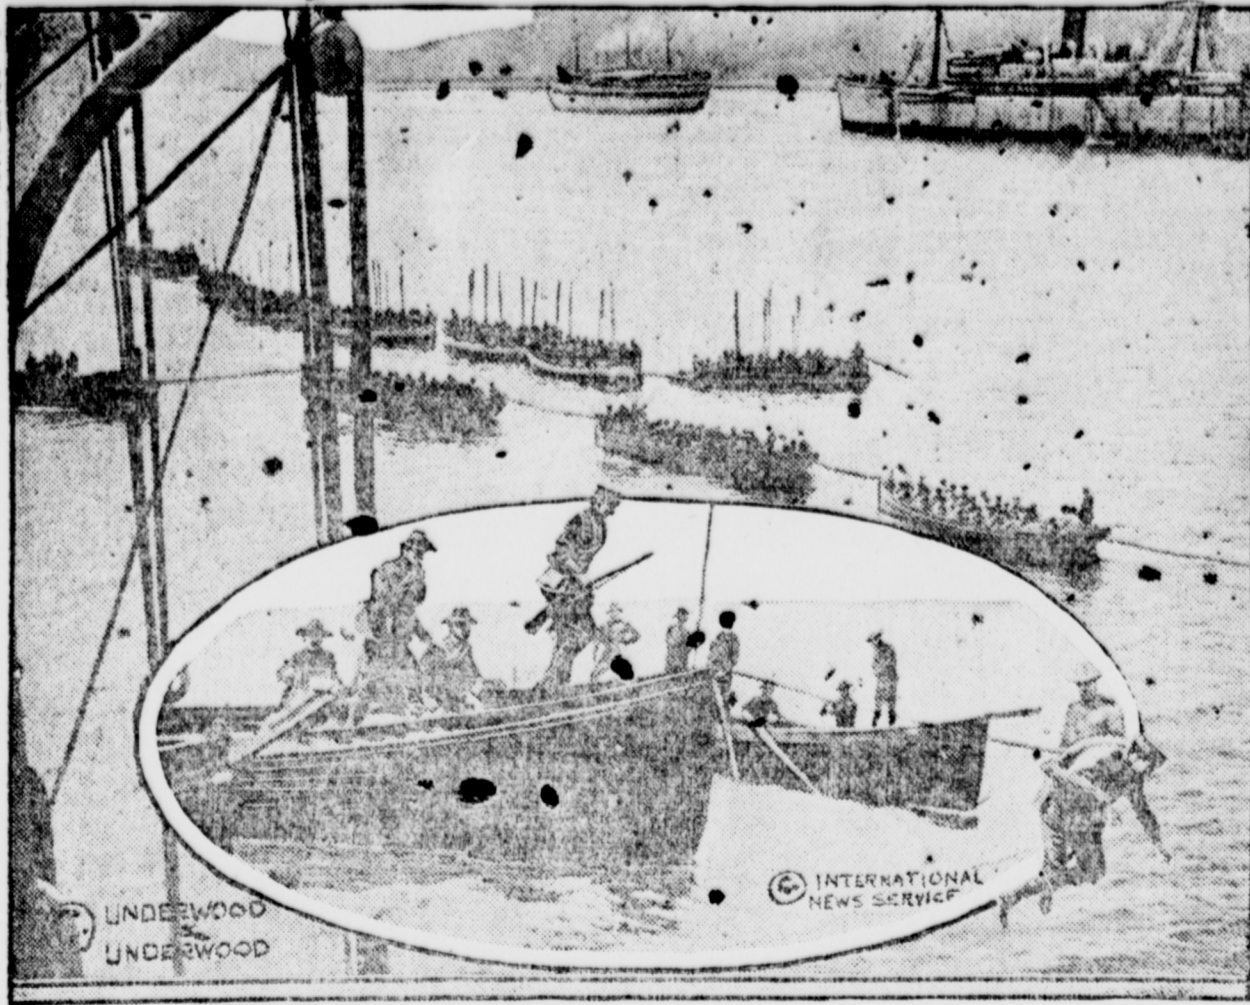

He will carry with him the kindest feeling and best wishes of the bar for his happiness and success in the future, and his stay with us will be always a source of pleasant recollections.

That these resolutions be spread on the Order Book of the Court and a copy furnished Judge Henson and the county papers.

J. P. SANDERFUR,
ERNEST WOODWARD.

Many are the changes that have been rung on the stolen-umbrella joke, and a fresh one has been printed in the Tattler.

On the notice board in an Ipswich reading room there recently appeared the following appeal: "Will the gentleman who took a horn-handled umbrella from the stand on Wednesday kindly return it to the librarian?" Some one wrote beneath in pencil: "Certainly not; weather still unsettled."

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

The Republican party in Kentucky in convention assembled adopts the following platform:

(1) We approve the policies of the National Republican party in providing for the defenses of our coasts against foreign invasion, and the protection of American industry against the pauper labor of foreign countries without imposing unnecessary or unjust burdens upon the consumer. We favor the nomination for the Presidency of a candidate who is in accord with those policies, and is abreast of the spirit of progress required by ever changing condition.

(2) We condemn the inefficiency of the administration at Washington, its inadequate tariff law and its tax in times of peace, which have resulted in the closing of factories, the stagnation of business and the enforced idleness of millions of workmen.

We demand the redistricting of Kentucky in legislative, senatorial, congressional and judicial districts, which shall give equal representation and equal voting power to every citizen of every district, in conformity with the plain requirements of the Constitution, and not as at present, in flagrant violation hereof.

(3) We demand the repeal of the present infamous primary law formed for the purpose of preventing freedom of choice to the voter, and favor the enactment of a law which shall permit party nominations for judicial offices without regard to the party affiliation of the candidates so that the judiciary may be chosen on non-partisan grounds, and the continuance in office of judicial public servants may be determined by no other qualification than that of fitness.

We favor amendment to State laws permitting and encouraging joint nominations of the same candidate by the different parties. We demand the repeal of the law providing for registration certificates imposed upon the State by the Democratic party for immoral political purposes, whereby votes in Kentucky have become negotiable instruments, passing by delivery.

(4) We demand that the public schools of the State shall be taken and kept entirely out of politics, and that the interests and welfare of the children shall have first consideration in all public school matters. We call for better schools and schoolhouses, for longer school terms in the country and better pay for the teachers.

We also favor extending the aid of the State to its institutions for higher education.

(5) There should be complete publicity concerning the expenditure of money for political campaigns, and a law should be passed for the accounting by candidates and campaign managers of all sums of money collected for political purposes.

(6) We demand the enactment of a law providing for bi-partisan control of the penal and charitable institutions, and for the abolition of contract labor, and we endorse the Constitutional Amendment providing for convict labor on public roads and highways, insofar as the same may be done without injury to free or organized labor.

(7) Realizing the influence of good roads on the economic, educational, social and religious development of the State, we pledge ourselves that the present law, introduced by a Republican, authorizing State aid, shall be carried out, and the building of permanent highways throughout the State by a system guaranteeing to the people an honest expenditure of their money, shall be encouraged.

(8) We favor further legislation for the protection of labor from unnecessary bodily injury, and we favor the enactment of a fair and equitable workmen's compensation law.

(9) We favor giving to the Railroad Commission power to regulate public utilities of the State.

(10) We favor the passage of laws which shall make effective constitutional provision against the issuance of free passage to officials.

(11) We oppose double taxation, and will favor a thorough revision of the tax laws which will equally distribute the burdens of taxation, reduce the rate and not only retain the capital now invested, but invite the investment of other capital in the State. We favor the adoption by the people of the Constitutional Amendment enlarging the power of the General Assembly on the matter of taxation, and when such additional law is passed to make it effectual only when submitted to, and approved by a majority of the people who vote upon the same. We favor such regulation by law as will consolidate assessment and collection of taxes, so that the cost of collection may be materially reduced.

(12) We condemn the enactment by the Democratic party of a large number of obnoxious laws, the creation of expensive offices and commissions and the wasteful and extravagant expenditure of money, and we promise, if given power, to repeal all such laws, to abolish superfluous offices and reduce the cost of administration to the least possible point consistent with an economical and efficient system of government.

(13) Realizing the importance to the State of the prosperity of the farmers, we heartily approve of their legal efforts to secure better prices for the products of their farms, and pledge ourselves to assist them in all legal ways.

(14) For economic, as well as humane reasons, we recommend that the State of Kentucky undertake and later to continue the work of the United States Public Health Service for the prevention of blindness from trachoma, a communicable and painful disease of the eye, from which, the last census report shows that 33,000 persons are suffering in a single section of the State.

(15) We call attention to the vast resources of our State as yet undeveloped and invite capital and labor into the State to develop such resources.

(16) Expressly reserving the right of all Republicans to vote upon the question of woman's suffrage as they see fit we favor the adoption by the next General Assembly of a resolution submitting this question to the people for decision at the election of November, 1917.

(17) The Republican party in Kentucky is responsible and deserves the credit for the county unit law. In 1907 we declared definitely for the local option law with the county as the governing unit. In 1911 we again declared for the county unit law in accordance with the Constitution. We now declare our continued adherence to the county unit law, and we do hereby endorse the present county unit law of Kentucky, and pledge ourselves to its strict and rigid enforcement, and we favor the adoption of such amendments thereto as may be necessary to make it effective beyond question.

Hamlett's Circular.

Mr. Hamlett says in his circular: "I have before me in my hands a photograph of an agreement under the terms of which $3,761.29 was to be paid, and was paid out of the school fund of Kentucky for work done in various offices, including that of the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction, Attorney General, Adjutant General, and for the office of the Clerk of the House, Senate, and for other work done on the third floor in the new capitol. This was paid to an undertaker and paid out of the school fund of Kentucky, which the Constitution and the statutory law both require to be 'inviolable' and 'sacred'."

The statement that any sum was paid out of the school fund for work done in any office save that of the Superintendent or necessary to make an exchange of offices so as to provide necessary room for the records of the department is false.

The statement that he held in his hands the 'picture of a warrant for $1,800, payable to an undertaker out of the school fund of Kentucky, and charged to the school fund of Kentucky for materials furnished in the 'erection' of the State Capitol building and turned over to the State is false. The material used and work done for educational department was altering and refitting rooms on the third floor. The rooms that had been set apart for the department were entirely too small to hold the necessary cases to hold the records of the office. The department got value received. If that were true of the expenditures of Mr. Hamlett no complaint would be made. But when he says part of the expenses which he charged to the State was incurred in going to Livingston county to prosecute an embezzler of school funds when, as a matter of fact, the court records and the certificate of the County Attorney show that he was a witness for the defendant the statement is ridiculous.

STOMACH TROUBLE FOR FIVE YEARS

Majority of Friends Thought Mr. Hughes Would Die, But One Helped Him to Recovery.

Pomeroyton, Ky.—In interesting advices from this place, Mr. A. J. Hughes writes as follows: "I was down with stomach trouble for five (5) years, and would have sick headache so bad, at times, that I thought surely I would die. I tried different treatments, but they did not seem to do me any good. I got so bad, I could not eat or sleep, and all my friends, except one, thought I would die. He advised me to try Thedford's Black-Draught, and quit taking other medicines. I decided to take his advice, although I did not have any confidence in it.

I have now been taking Black-Draught for three months, and it has cured me—haven't had those awful sick headaches since I began using it.

I am so thankful for what Black-Draught has done for me."

Thedford's Black-Draught has been found a very valuable medicine for derangements of the stomach and liver. It is composed of pure, vegetable herbs, contains no dangerous ingredients, and acts gently, yet surely. It can be freely used by young and old, and should be kept in every family chest.

LOSES IDENTITY

SAVING FRIEND

Harrowing Experiences of Victims of Automobile Accident.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Oct. 24.—Thomas Sneddon, Jr., victim of harrowing and uncanny experiences, almost without parallel, in an automobile accident near Kemmerer, Wyo., a week ago, is reported recovering from his injuries. Word of his improved condition was received over long-distance telephone. The message came from Thomas Sneddon, father of the injured man, to A. A. Vealey, manager of the Isis theater. The younger Sneddon has an interest with Vealey in the local house.

Though the story of the automobile accident that resulted in the serious injury to Sneddon and the death of his companion, Red Vickers, city marshal of Diamondville, has been published briefly, the account of Sneddon's harrowing and terrible experiences is yet to be printed. It rises above the day-to-day level of news to take its place with the stories that will long be told of and talked about.

Tries to Save Friend.

The accident occurred while Sneddon, owner of a heavy car, and Vickers, were returning from a duck hunt on Bear River. At a sharp turn in Nugget Canyon the car skidded and rolled over and down a steep bank into a creek. Sneddon was thrown clear and escaped with a fracture of the shoulder, a wrenched spine and severe lacerations of the head and face, but Vickers was pinned under the car and mortally crushed. Sneddon was unconscious for several minutes. When consciousness returned to Sneddon he heard Vickers feebly calling for help, and wading in water waist deep, staggered to his assistance.

One of Sneddon's arms was useless and he was suffering acutely from his injuries, but he managed to drag Vickers, whose head had remained above the water, from beneath the car, the engine of which was still running. He was unable, however, to get the dying man out of the water and up on the river bank. For forty minutes Sneddon supported Vickers against the bank before the marshal died, and during twenty minutes of the period Vickers retained consciousness and suffered excruciatingly. When death finally came, Sneddon wedged the body between the bank and the automobile in such a position that it would not be swept away by the current, staggered toward Fossil Station to summon assistance.

Delirium Controls Victim.

For five miles the injured man, now delirious, stumbled along the road, darkness falling meanwhile. Sharp stones cut through his shoes and lacerated his feet to the bone. When within two miles of Fossil he met William Haywood, who was driving an automobile. Sneddon gave Haywood an incoherent account of what had happened. Haywood being unable to judge from his story whether Vickers was dead or still alive and pinned under the wrecked car, he hurried with Sneddon to Nugget, a railroad siding, where there is a telephone, and sent word to Cokeville to have a midnight passenger train stop and pick Sneddon up. He then drove at top speed to the scene of the accident, intending to rescue Vickers.

Loses His Identity.

A short time later the engineer of a freight train saw a man clattering along the track and lighting matches evidently in an attempt to flag the train. He threw on the air, but the engine did not come to a stop until it had struck the man on the track, who was Sneddon. The momentum of the train had been so checked, however, that Sneddon sustained no additional injury. To the train crew he saved of an accident in which he said Sneddon had been killed and Vickers badly injured. The delirious man was taken aboard the train and at the next station the conductor wired to Kemmerer that Sneddon had been killed and Vickers, badly injured, was being brought to Kemmerer on the train.

Sneddon's father, a prominent coal mine operator, was notified, and went to the depot to receive Vickers. Sneddon's family were prostrated by grief. Bending over the supposed Vickers, the elder Sneddon was amazed and overjoyed to find that he was his son.

Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"Last winter I used a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a bad bronchial cough. I felt its beneficial effect immediately and before I had finished the bottle I was cured. I never tire of recommending this remedy to my friends," writes Mrs. William Bright, Ft. Wayne, Ind. Obtainable everywhere.

Surprise Birthday Dinner.

On Monday Oct. 25 the children and neighbors of Mrs. Lucinda Taylor gave her a surprise birthday dinner. It was one of those ideal autumnal days, said to be the saddest of the year by philosophers and poets since all nature is engaged in putting on its death robe, to be buried by cold icy winter's embrace, until the sun returns from its long voyage south, to cheer and warm its desolate surface and once again resurrect and bring back to life the tender grass and fragrant flowers.

The day was pleasantly spent in the social fashion that is so characteristic of Kentuckian hospitality. But time and tide wait for no man and ere we knew it "Old Sol" was putting us in the shadow of the earth, so the hasty good-bye was said, leaving the hitherto quiet home full of love, hope and good whose home we met.

Those present were as follows: Emerson Rogers and wife, Allen Gentry and wife, J. W. Cox and wife, Byron Taylor, wife and daughters, Eva, Zecky and Eva, Lon Gentry and mother, George M. Mullien and wife, Estil Taylor, wife and son, Frank, Dudley Plummer and wife, J. W. Tilford, wife and son, Percyville, Thurman Taylor wife and little daughter, Mollie E. Mosco Taylor and little daughter, Virginia, Miss Lena French, Mrs. Fred Porter, little son and daughter, Virgil Byron and Ormona, Master Salem Taylor, C. S. Taylor.

Convinced by Democratic Testimony.

"In this most complete and arduous examination of this department, I must say that never have I seen a more reckless or incompetent handling of the State's business and the State's money. As I said before, there was no cash record kept except on the register, and that was inaccurate in the extreme. There were discrepancies in every settlement. In three times out of four the desk was short in sums ranging from eighty to four hundred and eighty dollars, and not a word was said, and seemingly no action was taken to restore this money to the Commonwealth. I cannot satisfy myself that these discrepancies were due to carelessness; in fact, I believe they were not. I am of the opinion that there was a systematic plan to defraud the State. I trust that the serious nature of his offense will not be overlooked. To their has been added the crime of mutilating public records."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

LATEST WAR NEWS

Monday.

Serbia.—Bulgarians have captured three Serbian towns, including Uskup, an important junction on the Nish-Saloniki railway, and have thus placed themselves across the route by which the Allies' re-enforcements for Serbia would travel. The Austro-Germans, in the north have begun a more vigorous offensive and are much nearer a union with the Bulgarian forces.

Russia.—Heavy fighting on the Russian front in the Dvinsk region has brought the Germans fresh successes, and Field Marshal von Hindenburg claims to have inflicted heavy losses on the enemy and captured 2,000 prisoners. The town of Ilouk was taken after a battle which lasted all day and in which the losses on both sides were heavy. The fighting was carried on in the streets at the point of the bayonet.

Italian Theater.—The Italians announce a "new and brilliant success" in their offensive against the Austrians, while the latter, in an official communication, admit the deadly effect of the Italian artillery fire, but allege to have made gains.

In France.—The eighth German attack in the Givenchy wood has been repulsed for five days, according to the French statement. The fighting for the most part has consisted of artillery engagements, although there have been several exciting air combats.

Tuesday.

The Balkans.—Heavy fighting characterizes the operations in the Balkans. The Teutonic allies and Bulgarians are still gaining ground against the Serbs almost everywhere, but in the south the French have stepped into the arena and have decisively defeated the Bulgarians at Krivolak on the Saloniki-Nish railway, southeast of Vele, giving them control of the line some forty miles to the north of the Greek frontier.

France.—In Champagne the French are busily engaged in warding off German counter-attacks delivered with desperate determination against a section of an important salient which the French had previously taken. Some of their trenches in the center have been recaptured by the Germans, but latest reports are that the opposing forces were still fighting fiercely with grenades.

Russia.—The Russians in the Riga and Dvinsk regions of Northwest Russia have again assumed the offensive against the Germans, but Berlin asserts that all counter-attacks there have been repulsed, except in the region of Ilouk, where, in the face of superior forces the Germans were forced to withdraw. A gain of some ground west of Komarow for the Germans is recorded by Berlin.

Italy.—On the Austro-Italian battle line Rome anticipates the capture of Gorizia by the Italians. There have been three hostile air raids over Venice.

Thursday.

England.—Lord Lansdowne, now a minister without portfolio in the British Cabinet, in a statement in the House of Lords has voiced the belief of the British government that the position of the Serbian armistice is critical. In his opinion Serbia cannot hold out for any great length of time against the pressure of the Austro-Germans and the Bulgarians. London officially announces that the British transport Marquette has been torpedoed in the Aegean Sea, and that ninety-nine of the personnel on the vessel are unaccounted for.

Serbia.—Notwithstanding the overwhelming forces which have been attacking them at many points, the Serbs are displaying great gallantry, and against their desperate resistance both Austro-Germans and Bulgarians have found it difficult to make headway. At some points the Serbs, far from giving way, have assumed the offensive and have recaptured the town of Vele, which their French allies hold.

Russia.—The Germans are claiming further successes for their troops in Northwest Russia and in the central sector around Czartorysk, but Petrograd says that in the Northwest the German attacks were repulsed.

France.—A big battle is still in progress in the region of La Courtine where the French and Germans are fighting for possession of the German salient, a portion of which was captured by the French and some parts of which were recaptured later by the Germans.

Italy.—Rome records further progress for the Italians against the Austrians on various parts of the Austro-Italian front, where the Italians are establishing themselves in newly gained positions.

Chronic Constipation.

"About two years ago when I began using Chamberlain's Tablets I had been suffering for some time with stomach trouble and chronic constipation. My condition improved rapidly through the use of these tablets. Since taking four or five bottles of them my health has been fine," writes Mrs. John Newton, Irving, N. Y. Obtainable everywhere.

How Long Can You Afford This?

By reason of useless offices, increase in salaries, and the extravagance of the present Democratic Administration, your State debt at the present time is increasing at the rate of more than $150,000 per month, more than $5,000 per day, and more than $500 every working hour in the day. The farmer and small home owner is compelled to pay 90 per cent. of this. Stop and consider what this means to you. The ballot of rebuke will change all of this. Won't you cast it. VOTE THE REPUBLICAN TICKET.

Highway Robbery—Farmers Deprived of Good Roads.

$101,308.52 was collected from a tax levied on automobiles. The law said that this money should be spent for the construction, maintenance and repairing of the public road. The farmers have been robbed of the good roads that this money would have built or repaired because the Democratic party unlawfully transferred the money to the General Expenditure Fund, and not a dollar of it went or ever can go toward good roads. Every time you pass over a mud hole or rut, remember who robbed the road fund. Vote the Republican ticket, and when it is elected the money collected from automobile tax will go toward the building and maintenance of good roads.

Stolen—From my pasture, one Shropshire buck 4 yr. old, tail cut very short, also one grade Hampshire ewe about 6 yr. old. Crop left ear if marked at all. Any information will be appreciated and rewarded.
